ICZM PLATFORM

Welcome to the ICZM Platform! This interactive space is designed as a multi-disciplinary "bank" of information, documentation and good practices related to ICZM in the Mediterranean (and elsewhere), as well as a place for networking and exchange. It is intended for policy and decision makers at all levels, practitioners, researchers, professors and their students, stakeholders from the private sector and civil society... all coast-lovers and ICZM-addicts, people who want to engage themselves to make our coastal zones resilient, healthy, productive and attractive. The PAP/RAC team is happy to welcome all of you because we want ICZM to become a must.

Use our planning tools to help you design and assess the progress of your own MSP taking an ecosystem approach, reviewing land-sea interactions and tackling climate change.

Mediterranean MSP Planning and Progress Checklist

The Mediterranean MSP Planning and Progress Checklist takes you through the MSP Process, giving you specific actions to adapt to your local context, and set milestones. By using a simple traffic light system the Checklist can also be used as a rapid self-assessment tool; allowing you to measure your own progress, and identify gaps and priorities. The list is not prescriptive or exhaustive, but is here to help you design the process, allocate resources and measure progress. It's based on the Conceptual Framework.

Ecosystem Approach & MSP Planning Tool

You can break down actions and follow application examples. Complete a short self-assessment of your implementation activity, get a to-do list of specific tasks and identify the barriers you've faced.

Climate Action & MSP Planning Tool

Use this tool to support climate change action within your planning. We've included examples for different sectors to inspire you to take specific action using local knowledge and actors in your region.

Land-Sea Interactions & MSP Planning Tool

Use our excel-based tool to support LSI analysis. The tool has been created based on the LSI methodological guidelines developed by PAP/RAC within SUPREME and SIMWESTMED projects.

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the MedOpen website. The browser's address bar shows the URL www.medopen.org. The website header includes the MedOpen logo, the tagline "virtual training course on coastal management in the Mediterranean", and logos for partner organizations: PAP/RAC, UNEP, and MAF. A navigation menu is visible with options for Home, Courses (with a dropdown menu showing ICZM and CV&C), Forum, MedOpen team, and Contact. The main content area features a large landscape photograph of a coastal area with islands and a blue banner with the MedOpen logo and tagline. Below the banner, a paragraph describes the program's goals: "The MedOpen aims at assisting Mediterranean countries in building capacities for coastal management. The training programme has been created to share ideas, lessons and strategies to forward the art of designing and implementing local, national and regional place-based integrated coastal zone management (ICZM), as well as to enhance a policy dialogue and build / improve capacities on implications of climate variability and change (CV&C) considerations." The browser's taskbar at the bottom shows various application icons and the system clock indicating 15:02 on 20.4.2016.
